

The Beneficiary Trust Nomination

This trust deed allows owner(s) of an Ardan International Limited (AIL) account to nominate trustee(s) to receive all portfolio account benefits following the death of the last surviving relevant person. The Trustees will hold all portfolio account benefits on trust for the portfolio account owners' designated beneficiaries.

Important Notes

General

This trust deed is provided as a draft to be considered by you and your professional advisers.

Ardan International Limited accepts no responsibility for any tax or other consequences arising out of you executing this trust deed, or for ensuring that the terms of this trust deed meet with your requirements.

This trust deed invalidates all previous beneficiary nominations linked to your portfolio account, therefore it is important that it includes details of all the persons whom you wish to benefit.

The portfolio account owner(s) and the Trustee(s) must sign this trust deed at Part D.

If you cannot enter the details asked for in the space available, please make a note on the trust deed and attach a separate document containing those details.

You should not use this trust deed if you wish to create a gift for UK Inheritance Tax purposes.

Inheritance laws and beneficiary designation

Many countries have laws governing the distribution of a person's estate on their death. There is a risk that the transfer into trust or nomination of the Trustee as owner of the portfolio account is not recognised by a jurisdiction and could be challenged. The basis for such a challenge would be that the rights of heirs may be placed above individual rights to pass on assets on trust to other parties.

The Relevant Person

The Relevant Person is the portfolio account owner, or where there are joint portfolio account owners, the last surviving portfolio account owner. Where there are joint portfolio account owners, the terms of this trust deed will have no effect unless both are deceased.

The Relevant Event

This is the date on which the last surviving Relevant Person dies and when the Beneficiary Trust Nomination is effective. Upon written notification of the death of the Relevant Person, the portfolio account benefits are payable to the Trustee for the benefit of the beneficiaries in accordance with the provisions in Part C of this trust deed.

Trustee

The Trustee(s) are nominated at Part A(ii) of this trust deed to act after your death and give instructions concerning the portfolio account, or any benefits arising from it.

Trust Fund

The Trust Fund is the portfolio account specified in Part A(i) of this trust deed, or any subsequent Ardan International Limited Portfolio Account(s) derived from the portfolio account specified in Part A(i).

Changing Beneficiaries

The portfolio account owner(s) must complete a new Beneficiary Trust Nomination if beneficiaries are to be changed.

Assignments

If you assign any part of the portfolio account specified in this trust deed as security or collateral to a financial body (such as a bank), that assignment will take priority over a beneficiaries' claim to any benefits designated in this trust deed whilst the assignment remains in force. Absolute assignments of all or part of the portfolio account to another party will render this trust deed null and void.

Benefits where no beneficiary survives

If no beneficiaries are alive at such time as any benefits become payable, all benefits will pass to the estate of the portfolio account owner or where there are joint portfolio account owners, to the estate of the last surviving portfolio account owner.

Automatic Exchange of Information

Under Tax Regulations and intergovernmental agreements entered into by the Isle of Man in relation to the automatic exchange of information for tax matters (collectively "AEOI"), Ardan International Limited is required to collect information about each Trustee, and Named Beneficiary once the trust is created. (Where any of the Named Beneficiaries are minors, this will be required once they reach 18 years old.)

Ardan International Limited will provide the information directly to the Isle of Man Income Tax Division (IOMITD) who may then provide the same information to the relevant jurisdiction. Ardan International Limited does not send any information direct to other jurisdictions.
